JUST LEAVE YOUR CAR AT THE DOOR!
N’vY is the new arty hotel in the centre of Geneva. Immerse yourself in an urban, hip, trendy universe. The design of the rooms, the relaxed atmosphere of the bars and restaurants: everything here promises an exceptional experience. And you – want to be the “envy” of all of your friends?

From the decor to the staff’s “dress code”, N’vY Hotel is off the beaten tracks.
FEELING GOOD

Nomad, Hipster, Shelter or SoChic, N’vY offers a range of rooms and suites to suit your lifestyle. Bathed in light, the spaces have been refurbished with a very contemporary eye, featuring fusion-style furnishings. Enjoy state-of-the-art technology throughout to make your life easier.
UNCOMPROMISING STYLE

At the N’vY hotel, you’re arty even in your sleep. That’s because you’ll see work from graffiti artist Meres One above every headboard.

IT’S ALL IN THE DETAILS

Our executive rooms are all equipped with open-façade bathrooms. Comfortably seated in your bath, enjoy a relaxing moment while watching a film or listening to your music.
Bold designs, trendy objects and mirrors, a blend of soft and bright colours, all the suites and rooms at the N’vY have their own unique style. Throughout you’ll find state-of-the-art technology, with Wi-Fi access, Bluetooth connection, flat screen televisions and adjustable lighting inspired by chromotherapy.
Right in the centre of the hotel, the N’vY bar is the place to relax. With its wide-open spaces, its colourful ottomans and modern art, the decor at N’vY bar is reminiscent of U.S. West Coast homes. Have a seat and try one of our signature cocktails or tasty burgers...
The kitchen offers fusion food menu around the clock, to enjoy to the tunes of the resident DJ.

A bold mixture of patterns and textures, the bar’s striking style owes nothing to chance.

Unique, surprising cocktails are the specialty of our bartenders-mixologists. Even the size of the ice-cubes is meticulously adapted to each drink!
Entirely decorated by graffiti artist Meres One, Tag’s Café prides itself on being unconventional and relaxed. Enjoy a snack, salad, green tea or coffee any time.

Are you mobile? At Tag’s Café, you can stay connected even as you eat on the run. Check your messages thanks to the touchscreen tables and iPads available on request.
Meres One, also known as Jonathan Cohen, is one of the foremost figures of New York’s new art scene. His ambition? To make street art a full-fledged art form. And so he founded 5Pointz Aerosol Art Center, an open air centre dedicated to graffiti art in one of Long Island City’s old industrial facilities. Meres One’s art is also exhibited in galleries, on album covers, in magazines, in music videos and movies.

It’s therefore no surprise that Meres One embraced the N’vY hotel’s project. And for the first time, a four star hotel is decorated with graffities.

Meres One created the headboards in the rooms and the design of Tag’s Café, whereas his New-York associate Zimad is the artist behind two black and white abstract paintings.

The Franco-Columbian artist Triny Prada, who was recently selected for the Venice Biennale, was the victim of an accident that almost killed her. After many months of recovery, she reconnected with her art, drawing inspiration from her experience of the fine line between life and death. Everything begins with a sketch. Then on canvas the line is used to compose portraits with almost surgical precision – most often portraits of composers that inspire her: Bach, Stravinsky, Glass, Lennon… Then comes the performance: the pigments that Triny crushes in oil for a long time and the movement that follows. From the small tarlatan canvas to the large formats, the movements are sharp, quick, the projections of colour and signs are more and more dramatic. Triny Prada’s art blends the precision of classical figure drawing and the sense of urgency of graffiti. She bids us welcome into a place where light comes to life. Each one of her works projects energy and overwhelming strength. For Triny Prada, life is art and art is life.
Trendy and stylish, on a slightly elevated mezzanine, the Trilby is the perfect place for an exceptional dinner.
Kobe-style “Wagyu” beef is an exceptional meat: its unique marbling gives it its tender “melt-in-your-mouth” texture, which you’ll enjoy along with its superb buttery flavour.

“Simmental” beef comes primarily from animals of about 10 to 20 months of age. Raised exclusively on natural feed, their meat is a light pink colour, aromatic and marbled.

Bred on the Great Plains, “Black Angus” cattle are, as of around age 15 months, fed a special mixture of grain for 100 days, guaranteeing consistent quality and giving the meat its incomparable taste.

The menu offers gourmet cuisine, featuring the world’s most celebrated types of beef – Simmental, Black Angus, and Kobe-style “Wagyu”.

Dine with the stars! Photos of actors and stylish decor add a touch of glamour to each of your meals at the Trilby.

The Harmony of Feng-Shui
In the heart of Geneva, discover the Jade Hotel’s serene atmosphere. Designed entirely according to Feng Shui principles, Jade is a true oasis of peace.
There is rarely such a story as this hotel's. Its decoration was actually guided by a Feng-Shui Master and his disciple who left China for the first time to come to Geneva and set up the hotel according to the principles of this ancient Chinese science. Once in Switzerland, they studied the hotel's atmosphere, its layout and geographical situation for two weeks. They then gave the architect and Manotel Group’s management valuable advices on how to optimise the circulation of energy.

From the rooms to the breakfast bar, it’s all about harmony and the balance of energies.
Come in, you’ll feel instantly at home. The Royal hotel welcomes you into a warm, neo-classical ambiance. Here, you’ll find tradition, attention to detail and a cosy atmosphere, along with state-of-the-art service and amenities.

“The Royal hotel staff always make their guests feel extra special. The service is wonderful and the hotel is like a cosy home.”
