Arty, Cosy, Trendy
An elegant way to enjoy the carefree life. In spaces where energy and mood flow, and where technology makes life easier, Hotel N’vY offers a BOHO-CHIC lifestyle. In this new concept, need gives way to desire.

153 Rooms and Suites
Hotel N’vY offers rooms and suites to suit your lifestyle - Boho, Nomad, Hipster, Shelter, or SoChic. The rooms have been remodelled in a pure and modern style – are bathed in light and boasting warm, richly-coloured furniture. Throughout the technology makes your life easier: Wi-Fi access, Bluetooth connectivity, flat screen TVs, sound systems, and adjustable coloured lighting (chromotherapy) to suit your every mood.

Our Executive Hipster rooms feature a bathroom that is open on one side. Take a moment to relax, lying comfortably in your bath and listen to music or watch a movie. For your relaxation, all Shelter Junior Suites have whirlpool bathtubs. Some of our Junior suites have furnished balconies with lake views. On the hotel’s 8th floor, the So-Chic Suite’s bold design and rich colours will enthrall you with its openness, its luminosity, its balconies and its lake views.

Catering
Located in the heart of the hotel, the N’vY Bar is an invitation to chill out. With it wide open space, its colourful ottomans, and contemporary works of art, its decor offers a Californian vibe. The N’vY Bar’s barmen – mixologist with the utmost attention to detail have created original and surprising cocktails, and even have, ice-cubes which are meticulously matched to each type of drink! The “fusion” cuisine delights the senses with unexpected associations, mixing flavours of Europe, America, and Asia and is offered from noon until midnight. In addition, a DJ welcomes you into his world of music.

Tag’s Café
Decorated by the graffiti artist, Meres One, Tag’s Café is all about anti-conformity and relaxation. Enjoy a snack, salad, tea or coffee any time throughout the day, served on touch-screen tables should you so desire, or to take away.

Trilby
On a slightly elevated mezzanine floor and in a cosy, trendy, and stylish setting, the Trilby restaurant is the perfect spot for an exceptional dinner. The menu offers gastronomic cuisine that honours the world’s finest beefs: Simmental, Black Angus, and Kobe-style “Wagyu” beef.

Geneva ranks among the world’s top ten cities in the world for quality of life.

- In the heart of Europe and easily accessible Geneva is a one-hour flight from most European capitals, 3 hours from Paris by TGV (high speed train), and there is free public transport from the moment you step off the plane.
- International Geneva: More than 200 organisations are based here: the UN (united nations), the ICRC (international Committee of Red Cross), CERN, and more.
- Cultural Geneva: Over 45 museums, some of which are free to visit; 2000 years of history in the Old Town.
- Gastronomic Geneva: There are 1’300 cafes and restaurants in Geneva, 7 of which have Michelin stars.
- Conference Centres: CICG (5800m²) in the city centre and Palexpo (100’000 m²), a stone’s throw from the airport.
- Discoveries: The Old Town, Geneva bay (la rade), and shopping (luxury boutiques) are some of the delights Geneva has to offer. Vineyards are close to the city Centre. Guests can access a wide range of sporting activities within 2 hours or less of the city – skiing, rafting, hiking, windsurfing, mountain biking.
- Over 35 major events are held in the city every year: such as the Geneva Motor Show, the International Fine Watchmaking Exhibition, European Business Aviation Convention Exhibition (EBACE), and the Geneva Festival.
